Offender Walker:

In your letter to Senator Thad Cochran dated June 04, 2008, you stated that the MDOC Commissary sold you a typewriter, and then discontinued the ribbon for said typewriter. After checking your commissary purchases, MDOC records indicate you have never purchased a typewriter. Our records also indicate that you have never had a deposit in your inmate account to make such a purchase, and that you owe the Mississippi Department of Corrections $81.00 in medical liabilities, $195.00 in County Court liabilities, $2905.00 in Federal Court Liabilities and $226.59 in Postage Legal Mail Liabilities for a total of $3407.59. Your current available inmate account balance is $0.00 and you have maintained that balance since May 21, 2003.

Inmates may purchase ribbons from the commissary though a special order.

Respectfully,

Stan Evans, Director
Inmate Banking/Commissary Operations
Mississippi Department of Corrections
